Observation of International Day of Non-Violence

Date: 07.10.2026

Venue: Conference Hall

Organized by: NSS Unit, Bhadrak (Autonomous) College

Bhadrak (Autonomous) College observed the International Day of Non-Violence to commemorate the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, the pioneer of non-violence and peace. The programme aimed to promote peace, tolerance, mutual respect, and non-violence among students and staff. The occasion highlighted Mahatma Gandhi's philosophy of Ahimsa (non-violence) and its relevance in addressing contemporary social challenges and fostering a harmonious society. The programme also emphasised the importance of resolving conflicts through dialogue, understanding, and peaceful means. Through this observance, the institution reaffirmed its commitment to promoting Gandhian ideals and nurturing a culture of peace, unity, and non-violence among students and the wider community.

We extend our sincere gratitude to our respected Principal Sir, Dr Lalit Ranjan Sahu, for his invaluable support, encouragement, and guidance in ensuring the successful conduct of the programme. The programme was coordinated by the NSS Programme Officers, Dr Sudarshan Das, Assistant Professor of Political Science and Mrs Swapna Sonalika Jena, Assistant Professor of Botany, whose efforts contributed significantly to its success. We also appreciate the dedication, cooperation, and enthusiastic participation of all NSS volunteers.

The programme concluded with the NSS Wing and students of Bhadrak (Autonomous) College reaffirming their commitment to promoting peace, non-violence, and harmony, while raising awareness about the importance of these values in fostering a peaceful and inclusive society.
